

History and Politics*

The program "History and Politics" was prepared to meet new market conditions and the needs of contemporary social – political phenomena and processes. Program seeks to empower the historian in his work. The main task of program "History and Politics" – to prepare highly qualified specialists, open to interdisciplinary research, who will be able not only to conduct research and work as scientists on the basis of systemic acquired competencies, but also work in the field of education, cultural institutions, political and social organisations. It should be noted that this program offers an interdisciplinary combination of specific complexes between the methodology of history and politics, theory and practice. Globalisation affects all spheres of human life: economics, politics, social structure etc. Humanity will not be able to solve many of the problems without the approach of humanitarian and social sciences, without understanding the essence of the processes. Future masters of history studying problematic of political and social history such as Europe in the age of total war 1914-1945, History of Sovietisation, Politics and Diplomacy, History of self government, Migration processes, Everyday life history, Cultural memory and heritage, etc. The "History and politics" is designed for those with a bachelor's degree qualification.
