

MANAGEMENT

The aim of the Programme is to support the development of a personality with systemic managerial thinking able to use the latest knowledge of management and apply methods of scientific research in making decisions that increase organizations value, able to work as executives in organizations or their departments. The Programme develops students' critical and creative thinking, research and intercultural competence, self-managed learning skills. The Programme focuses on the development of competences needed to managers of small and medium enterprises. The graduates of the Programme have good career possibilities. They can set up their own business or work as managers in regional, home and foreign private/state/public organizations in various sectors of the economy: industry (food, furniture, textile, etc.) services (banks, insurance companies, real estate agencies, transport, advertising, consulting, etc. companies), trade (retail and wholesale companies, the stock exchange). The graduates can work as managers of an organization or its particular divisions (product/service, export, finance, marketing, logistics, and supply managers), market researchers.

Degree awarded: Master's degree of management

Duration: 1,5 year full-time

Programme graduates achieve the following learning outcomes:

1. Know the latest concepts and methodologies of management and are able to make decisions that increase organizations value.
2. Are able to manage complex, unspecified situations and deal with non-standard management tasks in constantly changing local and international environments.
3. Develop abilities of socially responsible leadership, self-managed learning skills needed for successful professional-expert work and personal development.
4. Are able to assess critically strategic development alternatives and to foresee organizations development prospects.
5. Are able to solve complex problems in organization activities using scientific knowledge and research methods.
6. Are able to assess systematically the influence of changes on organization and society and initiate timely socially responsible management decisions.

Semester	Code	Course title	Credits	No. of Academic Hours
1	S180M036	Theories of Managerial Decision	6	56
	S189M153	Knowledge Management*	6	52
	S191M010	International Marketing*	6	46
	S190M001	Change Management and Leadership*	6	48
	S190M106	Management of Sustainable Development *	6	48
2	S170M027	Prognosis and Strategic Management	6	56
	S189M128	Management Informational Systems*	6	48
	S190M105	Systemic Organizational Assessment	6	54
	S274M087	Methodology of Social Research	6	54
		Electives	6	56
Electives		Psychology of Leadership, Consumer Behavior Patterns, Debates and Constructive Solution of Problems, Investment management, Diagnostic Management
3	S190M091	Magistro darbas	30	0
Total:			90	